

"What's THE HOUR?"

THE HOUR is:

- A gripping theatrical exploration of the theme of rescue through movement, text, video and songs.
- Hear the true story of a Cambodian girl who escaped the sex slave trade.
- See the death-defying stand of Liberian women who banded together to bring an end to their country's civil war.

Your Lydia Fair ticket (this button) includes admission to THE HOUR, which takes place on Sat., April 25, at 6:00PM and again at 8:30PM.

Also featured in THE HOUR:

- Poetry by Linda Beer, Mary Honaker Bender, Erica Charis, and Rachel Jean-Marie.
- New tunes by Sherri Brokopp, Kevin Burtram, Christopher Greco, Adam Guzewicz, and Dana Reynolds.
- Prose by Trish Ryan and Jeffrey Carver.
- Theatre by Bernice Sim.
- Choreography by April Shepard.
- The voices of Jaime Babstock, Kristina Kaiser, Lessie Tyson, and the Vineyard Choir.
- Performances by Barbara Brescia and Lucas Lloyd.
- Moving lights by Corey Gilliam.
- Original video by Adam Guzewicz and Tim Stonesifer.
- Cover tunes from Adam Guettel, Michael MacDonald, and Stevie Wonder.